

The Office of Congressman Brett Guthrie
proudly presents... the 2013 Congressional Art Competition!

Congressman Guthrie invites all high school students (grades 9-12) interested in art, to participate in his 2013 Congressional Art Competition.

The winning artist will be awarded two airline tickets to Washington, D.C. to attend a reception where they will be recognized and their artwork will be displayed in the United States Capitol Building. (As pictured to the right)

Please use the linked web address to visit my website for details about the competition, and additional awards and recognitions!

Background artwork provided by...
Congressman Guthrie's 2012 Winner, Riki Matsui

March 1, 2013
Opening Day of Competition
April 12, 2013
Deadline for Artwork to be submitted to Congressman
Guthrie's Office
April 22, 2013
Announcement of Winners